

POWER OF ATTORNEY
NEW YORK STATUTORY SHORT FORM

(a) CAUTION TO THE PRINCIPAL: Your Power of Attorney is an important document. As the “principal,” you give the person whom you choose (your “agent”) authority to spend your money and sell or dispose of your property during your lifetime without telling you. You do not lose your authority to act even though you have given your agent similar authority.

When your agent exercises this authority, he or she must act according to any instructions you have provided or, where there are no specific instructions, in your best interest. “Important Information for the Agent” at the end of this document describes your agent’s responsibilities.

Your agent can act on your behalf only after signing the Power of Attorney before a notary public.

You can request information from your agent at any time. If you are revoking a prior Power of Attorney, you should provide written notice of the revocation to your prior agent(s) and to any third parties who may have acted upon it, including the financial institutions where your accounts are located.

You can revoke or terminate your Power of Attorney at any time for any reason as long as you are of sound mind. If you are no longer of sound mind, a court can remove an agent for acting improperly.

Your agent cannot make health care decisions for you. You may execute a “Health Care Proxy” to do this.

The law governing Powers of Attorney is contained in the New York General Obligations Law, Article 5, Title 15. This law is available at a law library, or online through the New York State Senate or Assembly websites, www.senate.state.ny.us or www.assembly.state.ny.us.

If there is anything about this document that you do not understand, you should ask a lawyer of your own choosing to explain it to you.

(n) IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR THE AGENT:

When you accept the authority granted under this Power of Attorney, a special legal relationship is created between you and the principal. This relationship imposes on you legal responsibilities that continue until you resign or the Power of Attorney is terminated or revoked. You must:

- (1) act according to any instruction from the principal, or, where there are no instructions, in the principal's best interest;
- (2) avoid conflicts that would impair your ability to act in the principal's best interest;

You may not use the principal's assets to benefit yourself or anyone else or make gifts to yourself or anyone else unless the principal has specifically granted you that authority in this document, which is either in a Statutory Gifts Rider attached to a Statutory Short Form Power of Attorney or a Non-Statutory Power of Attorney. If you have that authority, you must act according to any instructions of the principal or, where there are no such instructions, in the principal's best interest. You may resign by giving written notice to the principal and to any co-agent, successor agent, monitor if one has been appointed, or the principal's guardian if one has been appointed. If there is anything about this document or your responsibilities that you do not understand, you should seek legal advice.

Liability of Agent: The meaning of the authority given to you is defined in New York's General Obligations Law, Article 5, Title 15. POWER OF ATTORNEY
NEW YORK STATUTORY GIFTS RIDER AUTHORIZATION TO MAKE CERTAIN GIFT TRANSACTIONS

Attached to a New York Statutory Short Form Power of Attorney dated _____, 2020 made by _____

CAUTION TO THE PRINCIPAL: This OPTIONAL rider allows you to authorize your agent to make gifts in excess of an annual total of $500 for all gifts described in (l) of the Authority section of the statutory short form Power of Attorney (under personal and family maintenance), or certain other gift transactions during your lifetime. You do not have to execute this rider if you only want your agent to make gifts described in (l) of the Grant of Authority section of the statutory short form Power of Attorney and you initialed “(l)” on that section of the form. Granting any of the following authority to your agent gives your agent the authority to take actions which could significantly reduce your property or change how your property is distributed at your death. “Certain gift transactions” are described in section 5-1514 of the General Obligations Law. This Gifts Rider does not require your agent to exercise granted authority, but when he or she exercises this authority, he or she must act according to any instructions you provide, or otherwise in your best interest.

This Gifts Rider and the Power of Attorney it supplements must be read together as a single instrument.

Before signing this document authorizing your agent to make gifts, you should seek legal advice to ensure that your intentions are clearly and properly expressed.

(a) GRANT OF LIMITED AUTHORITY TO MAKE GIFTS:

Granting gifting authority to your agent gives your agent the authority to take actions which could significantly reduce your property. If you wish to allow your agent to make gifts to himself or herself, you must separately grant that authority in subdivision (c) below.

To grant your agent the gifting authority provided below, initial the bracket to the left of the authority.

(_____) I grant authority to my agent to make gifts to my spouse, children and more remote descendants, and parents, not to exceed, for each donee, the annual federal gift tax exclusion amount pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code. For gifts to my children and more remote descendants, and parents, the maximum amount of the gift to each donee shall not exceed twice the gift tax exclusion amount, if my spouse agrees to split gift tax treatment pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code. This authority must be exercised pursuant to my instructions, or otherwise for purposes which the agent reasonably deems to be in my best interest.

(b) MODIFICATIONS:

Use this section if you wish to authorize gifts in amounts smaller than the gift tax exclusion amount, in amounts in excess of the gift tax exclusion amount, gifts to other beneficiaries, or other gift transactions. Granting such authority to your agent gives your agent the authority to take actions which could significantly reduce your property and/or change how your property is distributed at your death. If you wish to authorize your agent to make gifts or transfers to himself or herself, you must separately grant that authority in subdivision (c) below.

(_____) I grant the following authority to my agent to make gifts or transfers pursuant to my instructions, or otherwise for purposes which the agent reasonably deems to be in my best interest.

- (A) transfer, gift or convey any and all property that I may own as I may do under all circumstances for purposes of gift, estate or tax planning, Medicaid planning or for whatever purposes my agent(s) deems appropriate.
- (B) make or change all beneficiary designations, withdrawals, rollovers, transfers, elections and waivers under law regarding all life insurance contracts, annuity contracts, qualified plans, employee benefit plans and individual retirement accounts, whether as plan participant, as beneficiary, IRA owner or as spouse of a participant, including, without limitation, the waiver of qualified joint and survivor annuity and qualified pre-retirement survivor annuity benefits as provided in I.R.C. § 417; to authorize any distribution, transfer or rollover from all qualified plans and IRAs.
- (C) create trusts, whether revocable or irrevocable, on my behalf; to fund such trusts on my behalf or to make transfers or additions to any trusts already in existence; to withdraw income or principal on my behalf from any trust; to exercise whatever trust powers or elections which I may exercise; to open, modify or terminate deposit accounts and any other joint accounts, in my name and the name of other joint tenants, bank accounts in trust form and transfer on death accounts, and to designate or change the beneficiary(ies) of such accounts.

(c) GRANT OF SPECIFIC AUTHORITY FOR AN AGENT TO MAKE GIFTS TO HIMSELF OR HERSELF: (OPTIONAL)

If you wish to authorize your agent to make gifts to himself or herself, you must grant that authority in this section, indicating to which agent(s) the authorization is granted, and any limitations and guidelines.

(_____) I grant specific authority for the following agent(s) to make the following major gifts or other transfers to himself or herself:

name(s) of agent(s)

- (A) transfer, gift or convey any and all property that I may own as I may do under all circumstances for purposes of gift, estate or tax planning, Medicaid planning or for whatever purposes my agent(s) deems appropriate. This grant of authority shall include the ability of my agent(s) to transfer, gift or convey any and all property to himself, herself, or themselves, as the case may be.
- (B) make or change all beneficiary designations, withdrawals, rollovers, transfers, elections and waivers under law regarding all life insurance contracts, annuity contracts, qualified plans, employee benefit plans and individual retirement accounts, whether as plan participant, as beneficiary, IRA owner or as spouse of a participant, including, without limitation, the waiver of qualified joint and survivor annuity and qualified pre-retirement survivor annuity benefits as provided in I.R.C. § 417; to authorize any distribution, transfer or rollover from all qualified plans and IRAs. This grant of authority shall include the ability of my agent(s) to make or change said beneficiary designations, withdrawals, rollovers, transfers, elections and waivers to name himself, herself, or themselves, as the case may be, as the beneficiary(ies) thereof.

(C) create trusts, whether revocable or irrevocable, on my behalf; to fund such trusts on my behalf or to make transfers or additions to any trusts already in existence; to withdraw income or principal on my behalf from any trust; to exercise whatever trust powers or elections which I may exercise; to open, modify or terminate deposit accounts and any other joint accounts, in my name and the name of other joint tenants, bank accounts in trust form and transfer on death accounts, and to designate or change the beneficiary(ies) of such accounts. This grant of authority shall include the ability of my agent(s) to create trusts or accounts naming himself, herself, or themselves, as the case may be, as the beneficiary(ies) or joint tenant(s) of such trusts or accounts.

This authority must be exercised pursuant to my instructions, or otherwise for purposes which the agent reasonably deems to be in my best interest.

(d) ACCEPTANCE BY THIRD PARTIES:

I agree to indemnify the third party for any claims that may arise against the third party because of reliance on this Statutory Gifts Rider.
