

P.A.'L.A.N.T.E.

People Against Landlord Abuse & Tenant Exploitation

Carolyn Marko

Mrs. Carolyn Marko is being honored by P.A.'L.A.N.T.E. with an Above and Beyond Award. Mrs. Marko is currently the director of the 9 Million Reasons Food Pantry in New York City, where she has dedicated to providing nutritional resources to the community. Mrs. Marko has made significant contributions to P.A.'L.A.N.T.E.'s Bodega Friday events and prides herself on helping those in need. Mrs. Marko comes from a background full of Christian Ministry. Her father, Reverend Dr. Robert Johansson, started his ministry in the early 50's and was a huge inspiration in her life. Mrs. Marko clearly takes after her father as she is now the Executive Pastor of Evangel Church and the Headmaster of Evangel Christian School. Mrs. Marko has dedicated her entire life to Christian Education and has been working with Evangel Christian School since its inception. With a degree in teaching and a specialization in Early Education, Mrs. Marko was one of the very first teachers at Evangel Christian Middle School. Under her leadership, Evangel has not only grown, but has thrived. Mrs. Marko is a fearless leader, one that many look up to and aspire to be like.